

MARINE TRAINING COURSES FACTSHEET

COURSE	DESCRIPTION
The DPA and the ISM Code <hr/> DURATION 2 Days <hr/>	This two-day course is designed to provide training and a practical approach for all DPAs involved in managing a Safety Management System, or those who are seeking the position of the DPA, in order that they develop the knowledge and skills required in accordance with guidance and recommendations given by the IMO MSC-MEPC.7 circ6 (19 October 2007). The course is designed to provide in depth knowledge and understanding of the ISM code as a management system and is also aimed at those who want to improve their skills in implementing and managing safety management systems. By the end of this course through a highly participative combination of presentations, group discussions, case studies plus individual and syndicate exercises, you will learn and be able to understand and implement the: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◆ Roles and responsibilities of DPA and legal implications ◆ DPA's and ISM facing problems today ◆ Effective communication with internal and external parties ◆ Mandatory rules and regulation and other applicable industry guidance ◆ ISM code amendments and risk assessment techniques ◆ Continual improvement process, Effectiveness of internal audits, root cause analysis and measuring the system's performance ◆ PSC and PR17's issues ◆ Effective training and drills ◆ Safety Culture and human element issues Who will benefit? This course is of value to every DPA or assistant DPA or anybody else who is seeking this position and his duties involve matters of safety and pollution prevention. Your company will benefit from having a team member who is able to play an important part in the implementation of the ISM Code and support the DPA. Prerequisites for delegates : Knowledge of the ISM code, management systems auditing training and experience preferable i.e. completion of the Lloyd's Register's ISM Internal Auditor training course.